Mathew's Charge Checked by Hall

Superb Event

Forty-six players arrived in Virginia Beach from all parts of the country to compete in the 1st Annual Gibbs Billiards 9-Ball Shootout and share in the $22,700 purse. Denton Gibbs, Jr. produced, sponsored, and hosted the major event and provided every amenity possible for both the players and spectators. Gibbs Billiards sweetened the pot by $7,425 and stayed open 24 hours.

The event charged a $325 entry fee, paid twenty-four places and provided excellent conditions. The tournament arena featured four Gold Crowns with bleachers running parallel. A restaurant was on the premises serving food and drink.

Mathews Strings Nine

Grady Mathews lost his first match and lost his last match, but strung nine victories in between! He defeated LeBron, Williams, Davenport, Vickery, Parica, Mizerak, Reid, Sigel, and Strickland. It looked like he was ready to take it all but it took a Buddy Hall to stop the fueled charge. This was Hall's first major win of '85 after finishing second in both Ohio and Atlantic City earlier this year. His .899 TPA is this year's highest recorded tournament average.

NOTABLE MATCHES

Once again, as with each major tournament, we review the exciting matches worthy of note.

The number in parentheses is the player's TPA for that session.

Grady Mathews (.727) got off to a good start for after winning the lag, he broke and ran out the first two racks. David Howard (.908) then kept Mathews busy by serving up balls that Grady was forced to kick at. He defeated Mathews 11-3 and held him to pocketing just four more balls for the rest of the session. Note: Mathews proceeded to win the next nine sessions in a row!

While trailing 9-10, Mike LeBron (.841) made the nine ball on the break, but scratched. LeBron still won that rack and at 10-10, he made the nine ball on the break again, and scratched again! Jr. Harris (.802) won 11-10.

Edgar White (.812) upended Steve Mizerak (.866) in an 11-10 photo finish. As White made his charge while behind 7-10, Mizerak missed one combination and one bank, but it was just enough.

Paul Brienza (.820) won his first "wire" match of the year over formidable Efren Reyes (.796). Brienza had previously lost all five of his sessions that were decided by one game.

Although he defeated Woody Woodhouse (.814) by an 11-5 margin, Bob Williams (.861) had the dubious distinction of scratching on the break four times in a row.

Players' Preference

A poll was taken to find out what billiard cloth touring 9-ball professionals preferred. The question that was posed to each of the forty-six pros at the Gibbs Shootout was, "What billiard cloth would you prefer to play on in tournaments?" Simple enough, right? The responses were varied with comments praising several types and brands such as, "This cloth rolls more true.", or "This is the cloth that I am used to and most confident with.", or "This cloth is easier to jump balls with." After all was said and done, the consensus was twenty-five preferred Simonis while seventeen preferred other cloths of various brands and composition, and four did not respond at all.

first break. The next time he stepped to the table, Hall was ahead 3-0. After two more racks with nothing for Mathews to capitalize on, it spread to 5-0. Finally, Mathews had several opportunities to close the gap, yet missed several makeable shots pushing the score to 8-1. Mathews then made a mild drive and with the score 9-3 Hall finally started to miss shots and position. This allowed Mathews to score and close the gap even more. At 9-6, Mathews scratched on the break again. It was to be his last chance for survival as Hall ran out and controlled the next rack with a safety and eventually won 11-6.

NOTABLE MATCHES <sup>13</sup>

Even more incredible, Mike Gulyassy (.866) fell victim to Terry Bell (.859) 11-10 in a session in which Bell had the good fortune of making the nine on the break four times including the case game!

What a rack! Larry Lisciotti (.732) and Jimmy Reid (.901) volleyed for 21 turns during the session's last rack before Reid finally scored and won 11-4.

In the most notable of "notable matches", Dave Bollman (.800) and Rudolfo Luat (.863) were knotted at 3-3. After a Luat kick, Bollman ran out and then broke and ran out the next five racks which would stand as the tournament high run! Two racks later, Bollman led 10-4. Don't go away! While Bollman experienced several unforeseen events, Luat displayed some exceptional talent and copped the win 11-10.

After trailing 4-6, Grady Mathews (.953) exploded with outstanding play and held Kim Davenport (.776) to pocketing just one more ball for the rest of the session. Mathews won 11-6.

In the best played match by both players, Mike Sigel (.958) stung Allen Hopkins (.895) with the tournament high TPA for a single session. Sigel won 11-6.

Grady Mathews (.913) continued his winning ways by defeating Steve Mizerak (.793) after being down 4-6. Mathews won the next seven racks in which Mizerak missed only one ball.

Belinda Crowned WPBA Champ

NEW LONDON, CT (9/13-15/85) - Belinda Campos Bearden captured the coveted 7th Annual WPBA Championship 9-Ball Tournament nearly coinciding with her most recent selection as the new President of the WPBA. Bearden tallied wins over Simpson, Laura Smith, Alabama, Haywood, and Debbie Smith before falling victim to Haywood. That loss was soon avenged as she captured the title, a trophy, a Huebler Cue, and $2,100.00.

Linda Haywood made a magnificent showing by defeating top seeds Ogonowski, Billing, Bell, and Bearden. In a sequence of events with different opponents, Haywood actually won 19 consecutive racks of 9-ball, a heretofore unheard of accomplishment! Sy & Dolly Eckstadt's Gold Crown Billiards generously hosted the $7,000 event. The in-the-money results are as follows:

NAME	PRIZE	NAME	PRIZE
1st Belinda Bearden	$2,100	7th-8th
2nd Linda Haywood	1,300	Sabra McArthur	300
3rd Debbie Smith	900	Geri Engh	300
4th Robin Bell	700	9th-12th
5th-6th		Florence Fuller	150
Mary Kenniston	400	Ruby Alabama	150
Billie Billing	400	Suzi Quall	150
		L.J. Ogonowski	150
