David Howard Prevails over U.S. Open Field

NORFOLK - David Howard emerged from the formidable forty-eight player U.S. Open field $7,000 richer. In races to eleven, he outpointed Opsahl (8), Lassiter (8), Roberts (7), Mathews (7), Hall (7), and Hopkins twice (3) and (9). In similar fashion, Jean Balukas won the distaff division and banked $1,700 in the process.

It's About Time "Little David"

NORFOLK, VA (11/3-8/86)- David Howard is the 1986 U.S. Open champion. After some near misses recently in several major events, it seemed that it was just a matter of time before he would have his day.

Defending champion Jimmy Reid did not fare too well even after an impressive opening round in which he disposed of Terry Bell 11-2. In the next round, a near three hour match with Buddy Hall was the beginning of the end for the 1985 U.S. Open champion. He lost that match 10-11 and then was upset by Dave White 9-11.

Mike Sigel played remarkably well even in defeat.

He posted an .841 in a 10-11 loss to Steve Mizerak and an .845 in a 10-11 loss to Nick Varner. He also posted the high overall tournament average of .884 with Allen Hopkins following with an .871.

The six day tournament was staged in two areas. Most of the play was on two Gold Crowns in the main tournament area. A separate area was necessary for preliminary ladies' matches and the overflow of men's matches. A grueling schedule was adhered to in order to finish the tournament on schedule.

Notable Matches

A seesaw match which eventually put Kim Davenport (.791) on the hill kept him on the hill. Still needing four games to win, Allen Hopkins (.816) prevented Davenport from pocketing a single ball for the rest of the set and edged him 11-10.

In what may have been a case of not knowing the rules, Charlie Jarboe (.789) failed to notify Steve Geller (.680) that he was on two fouls. In fact Geller fouled four times in a row in the same game without penalty. Geller lost that rack anyway but later rallied from a 7-10 deficit to win 11-10.

Although Luther Lassiter (.878) pocketed 87 balls

Once again, Kim Davenport (.813) held a comfortable lead of 10-7 over Toby Sweet (.802), yet somehow after several chances to end the set, he managed to stay at 10. Sweet won 11-10.

Sometimes you pay dearly for your mistakes! While playing Allen Hopkins (.907) and trailing 4-5, Steve Mizerak (.737) missed a makeable shot. By the time it was all over, Mizerak was forced to play and committed only 12 errors, he still lost 8-11 to David Howard (.641) who pocketed only 50 balls and committed 28 errors! Of the eleven racks won by Howard he won eight of them with a run of no more than two balls.

In a grueling two hour and forty minute match, Buddy Hall (.790) managed to squeeze out the victory over Jimmy Reid (.838). While on the hill at 10-7, Reid hooked himself and made a bad kick. New score: 10-8. The next rack, Reid was afforded only safeties and kicks. New score 10-9. Two misses on makeable shots by Reid knotted the score at 10-10. While running out in the final rack, Reid hooked himself for the last time. Final: Hall 11, Reid 10.

Due in part to scratching on the break nine times, Jimmy Reid (.725) and Dave White (.762) together made a ball on the break without scratching only once during the twenty break game. After all was said and done, White upset Reid 11-9.

Ron Casanzio (.800) broke and ran out three racks in a row as he increased his lead to 8-4. But it was all in vain, for his opponent Mike Gulyassy (.800) later broke and ran out four racks in a row for the tournament high run and the win 11-8.

Total Performance Average (TPA) U.S. OPEN Rankings

If you reviewed the scores on page four, you probably noticed a number in parentheses to the right of each score. It was called the Accu-Stats Average. It is actually another name for Total Performance Average. That number reflects the player's ability for a single session. What follows are the overall tournament averages for each contestant.

Medina and Balukas Tops in Anaheim

ANAHEIM, CA (8/27-31/86)- The richest pocket billiard tournament in southern California history was staged at the Disneyland Hotel and drew 144 men and women players. Arlington Recreation Supply of Riverside added $30,000 to the prize fund making it a whopping $58,000 purse! The promoters of this sporting event, The California Mixed 9-Ball Open, were John Sanders and Herb Wiles who did a remarkable job in its production.

A unique format was employed in which the 96 player men's division and the 48 player women's division were each divided into three brackets. Preliminary the shot was more difficult than it appeared. play in both divisions used a double elimination format until there was a winner in each bracket. The Jean Balukas had a less stressful time in defeating three finalists in each division would use a round robin format to determine the winners. $8,000 would court, and Hoffman. The tournament results follow: go to the men's division winner and $5,000 would go to the women's division winner.

After five days of competition, Danny Medina edged David Howard for the men's title while Jean Balukas defeated Bonnie Hoffman to cop the women's honors.

Danny Medina's road to success included victories over Varner, Mason, Chapman, Dominguez, Parica, Padgett, Louie twice, Chartier, and finally Howard. In the final game of the final session, David Howard made a ball on the break, pocketed the two ball under immense pressure and then miscued shooting the three ball on what seemed to be an easy carom shot into the tournament winning nine ball. That miscue set up the Medina win. Howard admitted later that

Hall and Balukas Shine in Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, NC (11/11-15/86)- Buddy Hall upended Earl Strickland 11-8 in the finals as Jean Balukas did the same to Ewa Mataya 9-2 thus capturing their respective 1985 North Carolina Fall 9-Ball Classic titles.

Promoter Robin Kiker hosted the annual event adding $8,000 to the men's division and $2,000 to the women's. Scott Smith was given the task of directing the five day contest as forty men and fourteen women accepted the challenge to compete in the double elimination event for over $20,000 in prize money. The tournament site, Rob's Roost was open twenty-four hours a day, freeing the four Gandy pool tables each evening for open play.

Buddy Hall suffered no losses as he accumulated wins over Tony Mougey (3), Kenny Wellman (4), Grady Mathews (7), Danny Medina (7), Nick Varner (1D), and the defending champion Earl Strickland twice (10) and (8). He was rewarded with $8,000.

Jean Balukas did suffer an early loss at the hands of Ewa Mataya (2-9) who played a near flawless match. Balukas' victories included Loree Jon Jones (2), Mary Kenniston (1), Loree Jon Jones (4), Peg Ledman (7), Anne Mayes (1), and Ewa Mataya twice (8) and (2). She was rewarded with $2,000.

Sigel Breaks the B.C. Bank

Binghamton, NY (8/31-9/4/86)- Mike Sigel collected another $10,000 recently by defeating Mike LeBron in the 2nd Annual B.C. Open. Sigel won the race to eleven, double elimination event by defeating Pete Fusco (8), Jimmy Reid (10), Allen Hopkins (10), Wade Crane (5), Allen Hopkins (4), and Mike LeBron (8).

Promoter Gary Pinkowski engaged Charlie Ursitti as the tournament director and staged the event at the beautiful Holiday Inn Arena. The pro and pro-am event were scheduled just prior to the B.C. Open Golf Tournament, a popular stop for the PGA.

The $15,000 added main event charged a $500 entry fee and drew fifty-eight players from around the country. The money was spread out twenty-four places using the PBA prize money breakdown. $15,000 was also added to the pro-am event in which Earl Strickland shared the winner's circle with Joe Inman. Mike Sigel (.917) was ahead 7-6 when Danny Medina (.818) made a fatal error by scratching. Sigel quickly ran thirty-five balls to run out the set 11-6.

In an 11-3 win over Howard Vickery (.776), Mike Sigel (.931) ran out eleven of the twelve opportunities he had to run out.

What appeared to be an 11-9 elimination of Steve Shaw (.732) from the tournament by Danny DiLiberto (.777) turned out to be an 11-10 elimination of Danny DiLiberto by Steve Shaw. Needing one game, DiLiberto ran to and missed an easy nine ball.

What appeared to be an 11-10 elimination of Steve Shaw (.744) from the tournament by Grady Mathews (.803) turned out to be an 11-10 elimination of Grady Mathews by Steve Shaw. While running out the last rack, Mathews got out of line and missed the eight ball.

After a slow start and trailing Buddy Hall (.875) 2-6, Mike Sigel finished the session with near perfect play. During the next eleven racks he ran nine balls nine times, shot a .976 for that period, and won the set 11-8.

HALL'S GAME BEARS FRUIT IN CUE GARDEN

WEST PALM BEACH, FL (10/23-26/86)- Buddy Hall carved another notch in his gun after fighting his way through a tough forty-two player field. The Cue Garden 9-Ball Classic champion drew a profit of $3,700 for his efforts. The victims in his four day siege were Adam Schick, Bill Kelleher, Steve Cook, Wade Crane, and Danny Medina twice. The tourney format was double elimination, race to eleven with the final match a race to fifteen. During the final match, Hall was behind 2-7 but soon "put a three" and "put a four" on Medina to finish him off 15-11.

Jack and Kittie Stuart were the gracious hosts of the well planned event, charged a $149 entry fee and added $3,000 to the purse. The Cue Garden is a beautiful billiard establishment featuring a pool table that is distinguished from the rest by being recessed into the floor. All of the feature matches were played "in the pit". A unique scheduling format was devised by Jack Stuart whereas there were two days of preliminary matches and two days of feature matches using only one table. Great idea! Strickland Reigns Supreme

CHARLESTON, SC (11/16-18/86) | Twenty-six players, many of them trekking from the previous day's tournament Charlotte went in to recently Charleston to compete in The 2nd Annual South Carolina 9-Ball Open. The $149 entry fee and three day schedule was too tempting to pass by.

Walter and Mozelle Deery, owners of the Golden Cue Restaurant & Family Billiards hosted the event and added $2,000 to the prize fund. Four Big Gandy G tables were used, two of them in a theater-type setting and the reserved seating was sold out long before the tourney began.

the tournament director and the race to nine, double elimination tournament was under way.

Earl Strickland seemed like he was running away with the tournament. He defeated Bonife, Gulyassy, Mathews, Reid, and Manny Moore (Who's that?) before taking a thrashing from Wade Crane (Crane shot an 6-11. Accu-Stats' TPA of .911 Undaunted, set.) that Strickland came back to beat Crane in the tournament match 11-7 shooting a .901.

Wade Crane had made an incredible drive from the losers' bracket defeating Hodges, MacDonald, Mathews, Davenport, Mizerak, Hall, Manny Moore (him again?),

Balukas Returns to Power

MENTOR, OH (8/22-24/86)- Jean Balukas, noticeably absent at tournaments this year due to a knee injury which required surgery, reappeared and made her presence well known. Balukas outlasted the field of twenty-three women to win the $2,000 first prize at the 2nd Annual Women's Cleveland 9-Ball Open. Balukas did not have an easy time of it evidenced by an early loss and a narrow win while in the loser's bracket. After drawing a bye, she defeated Peg Ledman (4), JoAnn Mason (5), lost to Linda Haywood (4), then beat Ewa Mataya in a thriller (8), Mary Kenniston (5), Robin Bell (5), and Linda Haywood twice in the
